READING 1

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

READING 2

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

GOSPEL

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

Profession of Faith : The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Preparation of the Gifts: WE THREE KINGS

John H. Hopkins, Jr.

1. We three kings of Orient are / bearing gifts we traverse afar / Field and fountain moor and mountain / following yonder star.

O star of wonder star of night / Star with royal beauty bright / Westward leading still proceeding / guide us to thy perfect light.

 Born a King on Bethlehem's plain / gold I bring to crown Him again / King forever ceasing never / over us all to reign.
Frankincense to offer have I / incense owns a Deity nigh / prayer and praising gladly raising / worshiping God on high.
Myrrh is mine its bitter perfume / breaths a life of gathering gloom / sorrowing sighing bleeding dying / sealed in the stone cold tomb.

5. Glorious now behold Him arise / King and God and sacrifice / Alleluia Alleluia sounds through the earth and skies.

Communion: THE FIRST NOEL

English Carol

1. The first Noel the angel did say / was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay / In fields where they lay keeping their sheep / on a cold winter's night that was so deep.

Noel Noel / Noel Noel / Born is the King of Israel.

2. They looked up and saw a star / shining in the east beyond them far / and to the earth it gave great light / and so it continued both day and night.

3. And by the light of that same star / three wise men came from country far / to seek for a king was their intent / and to follow the star wherever it went.

4. This star drew nigh to the northwest / over Bethlehem it took its rest / and there it did both stop and stay / right over the place where Jesus lay.

5. Then entered in those wise men three / full reverently upon their knee / and offered there in His presence / their gold and myrrh and frankincense.

HE SHALL REIGN FOREVERMORE

Chris Tomlin & Matt Maher © 2015 S.D.G. Publishing

1. In the bleak midwinter / all creation groans / for a world in darkness / frozen like a stone / Light is breaking / in a stable for a throne.

And He shall reign / forevermore / forevermore / And He shall reign / forevermore / forevermore / Unto us a Child is born / the King of kings and Lord of lords / And He shall reign / forevermore / forevermore.

2. If I were a wise man / I would travel far / If I were a shepherd / I would do my part / But poor as I am / I will give to him my heart.

(Bridge): Here within a manger lies / the One who made the starry skies / this baby born for sacrifice / Christ the Messiah / Into our hopes into our fears / the Savior of the world appears / the promise of eternal years / Christ the Messiah.

Recessional: GO TELL IT ON THE MOUNTAIN

African American Spiritual

Go tell it on the mountain / over the hills and everywhere / Go tell it on the mountain / that Jesus Christ is born!

 While shepherds kept their watching / over silent flocks by night / Behold throughout the heavens / there shone a holy light.
The shepherds feared and trembled / when high above the earth / rang out the angel chorus / that hailed our Savior's birth.
